The social drama "Prag" is being exhibited in several administrative units of Albania. These activities are organized by the Center for Legal Civic Initiatives, in the framework of the implementation of the project “Strengthening women in need and increasing the community’s awareness for addressing gender discrimination and domestic violence through performance and drama”, which is supported by Civil Rights Defenders, as a partner in this project. “Prag” will be exhibited in Tirana, Lezha and Vlora.

The first activity was organized on 10th of December 2014, the last day of the 16-day campaign against gender based violence, at "100 Vjetori i Pavarësisë" High School in Kashar, Tirana. Around 70 people participated in this activity, consisting of students, teachers and parents, who showed great interest towards the drama and actively participated in discussions regarding the main concerns it raised.

Similar activities will be organized on the 15th of December, at the Children’s Cultural Center in Lezha and on the 18th of December, in Vlora’s City Hall, with the community and representatives of institutions.
